Please note that the Anaheim Police Department does not possess a record that identifies the exact compilation of information that you have requested and has no duty to create a record that does not exist at the time of the request. Government Code § 6252(e); Haynie v. Superior Court (2001) 26 Cal.4th 1061; 71 Ops.CalAtty.Gen. 235 (1988). Nevertheless, certain Anaheim Police Department records, or portions of those records, which may otherwise be responsive to your request may be withheld from production and/or redacted pursuant to the following exemptions provided under the Public Records Act:

- Documents reflecting police techniques or "security procedures" are expressly exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 6254(f);
- Police Investigatory records are generally exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 6254(f);
- The records are subject to the public interest exemption provided by Government Code § 6255;
- Juvenile information is confidential (W&I Code §§ 827 and 828);
- The records may be related to ongoing investigations and therefore are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code §§ 6254(a)(d)(f) and 6255 (See also, Haynie v. Superior Court (2001) 26 Cal.4th 1061; Williams v. Superior Court (1993) 5 Cal.4th 337; Rivero v. Superior Court (1997) 54 Cal.App.4th 1048; Rackauckas v. Superior Court (2002) 104 Cal.App.4th 169; Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training v. Superior Court (2007) 42 Cal.4th 278; New York Times v. Superior Court (1997) 52 Cal.App.4th 97; and 91 Ops. Cal.Atty.Gen. 11 (2008)); and
- The records contain personal contact information, which is exempt from disclosure pursuant to Government Code § 6255(a).

Without waiving the foregoing exemptions, and subject them, the Anaheim Police Department has identified the following information responsive to your request: Monthly Arrest and Citation Register. The foregoing document is organized by calendar month, and the current report can be viewed online at the following site:
